through the splendid team work of the Shelton-Payne aggregation, in a game that was fast and furious throughout, by a score of 27 to 23. Another large factor in the defeat of the Feldman team was that Buster Biggs was away off in his busket shooting.

For the Shelton-Payne team little George Bicfer showed some pretty basket shooting. Leasure's guarding in the second half was very strong. The rest of the team played-well, the general team work and particularly the passing heling by far the best of the evening. Russ Worthington, in his first out, played a great running guard. For Feldman, Tatum and Done both played a fine same.

The second game was directly opposite to the first, being very one-sided. The Bryan team, which was greatly strengthened by the addition of Bob Bryant, captain of the high school five, had a walk away, winning 32 to 13. The feature of this game was the aplendid guarding of Scott Walker and Gaylord. Their blocking was spiendid. The teams lined up as follows:

Sheiton-Payne team—L. F. Biefer;
R. F. Leasure and Schumacher; C., Holzman; L. G., Schumacher; C., Holzman; L. G., Schumacher; B., Bryant team—L. F., Race; R. F., Russell C., Mazanny; L. G., O. Walker; R. G., Werner.

"Descended Shaft for 82 Miles" in Order to Get Ball Player's Signature to Cont ract Before Rioting Broke Out at Coal Property; Army-Navy Game May Conflict With the Yale-Harvard.

BY FRANK G. MENKE.

New Art. Dec. 24.—Mike Kahoo scout for the Washington and Minneapolis clubs, went down into a coal mine recently to get the signature of a catcher who will get a trial with the Minneapolis club in the American Association next season. This name is Tom Wilson, said Kahoo. It was told to go to Hartford. Nebranka, where he lived. When I got to Hartford I found it a town of about 1200. In the cause was a coal mine. Inquiry developed the fact that Wilson was at work in the mine. I decided to wait until ne came out in the evening to sign him up, but I suddenly changed my mind following a conversation with one of the armed guards near this mine.

The proper condition.

Three games were played at the Gembilliard hall Wednesday night in the Every one of the games was very close. In the first game H. Buetell, a scratch man, won over George Bell by a score of 50 to 38. Bell's handicap of 10 brought his score up to 48. In the second game, J. Williams, with a handi-

Inquiry developed the fact that Wilson was at work in the mine. I decided to wait until he came out in the swelling to sign him up, but I suddenly changed my mind folliewing a conversation with one of the armed guards near the mine.

"There's going to be trouble arcund here pretty soon, Mister, said the guard. The regular miners are liable to come in on any train and the troops are on the way. Kinda think there's going to be some shootin' hereshouts.

"That was enough for me," continued Kaboe. "I just made for the mouth of that mine shaft and demanded to be taken down. The guards around there looked me over. I though sure they were going for "frisk" me, but they didn't because I presented eards and letters that were convincing proof that I wasn't a spy.

"Well, after going down and down for about 35 miles, the bucket that I was riding in reached the bottom. I was led for three or four miles farther and pretty soon I came upon a gang of men. My guide pointed out one and waid:

"That's Wilson."

"That's Wilson."

"I told Wilson that I had come to sign him up, for the Minneapolis club,

"That's Wilson."
"That's Wilson that I had come to sign him up, for the Minneapolis club, iffered him terms and he said they were satisfactory. Then he signed the outract and I started for the top of he earth once more. I got there and got out of town just before the solutions are the solutions of the said of the solution of the sol ers arrived."
"What did Wilson look like?" Kahoo

"What did Wilson look like! Kanos was saked.
"Say, I wouldn't know him again if I saw him on the street or in a mine," answered the scout. "All those fellows looked milto down there. They all were as black and sooty as could be. Maybe the guide gave me the wrong steer and maybe. I signed up the wrong man, but I took a chance on that rather than hang around that town any longer than I had to."

Football as she is conducted at Harvard is quite a lucrative sport. The total receipts for the 1914 season were $137,000. The total expenses were about $27,000. That leaves $17,000 as a net profit.

large And up in Harvard they resent the remarks of some folks who contend that colleges commercialize sport.

The Harvard share for that Yain-Harvard game was about $70,000. The Princeton game recipts were $40,000 and the Michigan receipts about $20,000. The rest of the money came genty the Fonnsylvania State. Tuffs. Bates, this games.

The Army-Navy football dates after the 1215 game is played may conflict with the Yale-Harvard battle dates. It has been customary in the past for Yale and Harvard to meet on the Saturday preceeding Thanksglving Day.

Of late the Army coaches have come out strongly against playing their big

Real Estate

Mere mention of it brings to your mind the idea of security. It is the basis of all wealth, the foundation of all values.

The man who owns real estate owns something tangible; something that can not be cornered and its price forced down.

Real estate in El Paso is particularly desirable. It grows more valuable as the years pass. Those owning El Paso property are not only earning a good rate of interest, but the principal itself is growing as the property becomes more valuable.

Richmond Terrace

is the place to buy. Location is everything; in Richmond Terrace you will have beautiful surroundings, good neighbors, and magnificent views.

Richmond Terrace

Is Close In-has all modern improvements. The streets are paved with bitulithic. There are miles of cement sidewalks, cement curbing, and park spacing with growing trees and shrubbery. Gas, water, sewerage, fire hydrants, electricity and car service are all there now-not simply promised. No subdivision of El Paso can compare with Richmond Terrace in point of improvements, location and in the quality of homes that have been built. OVER ONE HUN-DRED THOUSAND DOLLARS has been spent for homes in Richmond Terrace during the past few months.
